Dates: July 21, 2008 to August 14, 2008, 2:00pm – 4:00pm (4 weeks – Monday thru Thursday)

Participants: 25

Fee: $120

SB CEUs: Yes

Description: This is a 4-week introductory course to Mandarin Chinese language and its culture, with a focus on speaking, listening and characters recognitions. As we understand, language both shapes and reflects human culture. The class goals are to equip participants with the communication skills in Chinese; to inspire their further interests in the study of Chinese language and its culture; to provide participants who are teachers, administrators and school personnel with basic Chinese cultural etiquette and language skills to work with newly arrived Chinese students/parents.
